PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am writing this on the third of March, 1975, as I just returned from attending the Las Vegas, Nevada, annual state coin show. I mention this only because over this weekend, while in Las Vegas, I received in change from a five dollar bill three metal dollars, two of which were Ike dollars and one a 1922 PEACE SILVER DOLLAR. I almost dropped dead, I was so excited, and it made my trip. Some people just don't know the difference. I hasten to mention, it has been over two years since I received a silver dime in change. You should hear that I only came out a winner in the exhibits, and a loser at the slots and Keno tables. I was delighted to see good Ill. N. A. member Gary Lonnon at the Las Vegas show.

Down to the purpose of this message. First, I would like to call for nominations for Ill. N. A. officers and the three board seats to be filled. I personally will not run for reelection this year, but will become Chairman of the Board of Directors, and will serve for the next two years in this automatic seat. We must have nominations for President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer — these are the four officers — and three board members are to be elected. Kindly mail your nominations to the chairman of the nominating committee, Mr. LeRoy (Jim) Kaczor.

The Ill. N. A. board of directors will meet at noon, in Joliet, on Sunday, April 20, 1975, at the site of the annual Will County Coin Show, Holiday Inn South on Interstate 80 at Larkin Avenue. Any written or oral communications should be brought up or expressed at that time.

I understand there are as many as thirty plus members of ANA running for the various seats on the ANA board this August. Likewise, several good ANA members are running for each respective officer position. As a member club of ANA, we will discuss our endorsements if any at the next Ill. N. A. board meeting, since our convention follows the ANA election. I certainly hope that all new ANA officers will see fit to attend the Illinois state convention this year in Springfield at the Holiday Inn East during September, and that each Ill. N. A. member can meet them, and that any Ill. N. A. member who is not a member of ANA will consider joining the national association. Likewise, that applies to any ANA member, especially residing in the state of Illinois; each should join and support their own state organization. Now for out of state residents, in the remaining 49 states, each and every one of you is welcome and I encourage you to join us, as I look forward to personally meeting with you, and sponsoring your application.

At this time, I would like to speak on Exhibiting at the Illinois State show. This coming September we need Exhibitors, the more we have the better the show is. I appeal to you to consider setting up a competitive exhibit.

FROM THE EDITOR

Though this issue of the COIN DIGEST is a little late, I think it is worth waiting for. My last appeal for contributions brought in several, among them our first crossword puzzle ever. This is a custom-made Ill. N. A. puzzle which I think every reader will have fun solving. I am not sure how its coin pictures will turn out, but if they are not very clear I hope our members will take it as a challenge and try to guess what each coin would actually look like.

An excellent article, "How to Prepare an Award-Winning Exhibit," is being held over until next time. More contributions are welcome; I would like to feature at least two articles each issue.

Thanks are due to Joe Mileham of B & J Coins of Springfield, Ill., for his past support of Ill. N. A. by advertising in the COIN DIGEST. Joe's one-year contract was completed with the last issue. His place this issue is taken by Krause Publications' announcement of their new Standard Catalog of World Paper Money. This field has been just booming lately and undoubtedly has a long way to go, as many beautiful notes are still available at very nominal prices. I hope they have printed enough copies to go around of what should prove to be a very popular first edition. — Bob Leonard

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Leonard:

Enclosed are my checks for my advertising . . .

You are doing a great job on the COIN DIGEST. I did enjoy your "Three Leg" article in the January, 1975, issue.

Would you like a suggestion, regarding your "Illinois Area Coin Shows"? I am sure it is helpful to have these listed, but with all of the commercial (and they are by no means shows . . . just bourses) listings, it gets too monotonous to bother reading them all. I would suggest that you put the real "shows" (my definition would be one that is sponsored by a Coin Club, and has Exhibits and some education as well as the Bourse Area) in bold type, so they would be easily spotted. The "commercial", or "bourses" listings are getting a little free advertising, while the "shows" are actually promulgating Numismatics . . . our Club's main concern.

Would, also, suggest that at the end of your listing, you list (or re-list, if it be the case) all of the future known dates and places of our Ill. N. A. shows, and the known shows of the A.N.A. and the C.S.N.S. . . . since these would be of interest to most of our members, even tho they would be "out of state". (Similar to The Numismatist).

Just went thru the list, and out of 69 listings, only believe there were 9 "shows":

1/26 Muncie; 2/23 Gibson City; 3/23 Springfield

2/9 Rantoul; 3/16 Freeport; 4/20 Joliet
2/23 Dupo; 3/16 Kankakee; 4/20 Niles

Thanks for "listening"!!

Sincerely,
J. Thomas Nolan

This is the first written complaint about the bourse listings that the editor has received, although he has heard of others through the grapevine. Sensitive to these criticisms, he has tried always to clearly differentiate between the commercial bourses and the true coin shows, and further — where possible — to make the listing for bourses shorter, and for shows longer, to give shows more prominence.

But this seems not to be enough, and so, with thanks to Mr. Nolan, from this issue on the show listings will be printed all in boldface type. All club-sponsored shows will be so listed; it is hoped that they all have exhibits and possibly educational programs.

Partly behind these criticisms, though, is a lack of recognition that coin buying habits have changed, at least in the Chicago area. The editor is not a promoter of, nor a dealer at, any of these bourses, but merely reports those that come to his attention. The great number of bourses listed is an accurate reflection of the situation today. Commercial bourses are firmly entrenched in Chicago area numismatics and attract far more visitors than the occasional shows do. And this is where Ill. N. A. has its greatest opportunity for growth — in providing the only comprehensive guide to these bourses, and in being distributed at them (see following letter).

As for the "free advertising" complaint, the editor always asks the bourse promoter to join Ill. N. A. whenever he drops off sample copies — listing his bourse — to be distributed. Only once has he been turned down, at a stamp and coin bourse, and even there there was an Ill. N. A. member with a table. Most of the bourse promoters and a fair number of the dealers are in fact Ill. N. A. members. Of course club shows are listed whether the club is an Ill. N. A. member or not, and whether they seek a profit or not.

In the editor's opinion, the COIN DIGEST is not the place to list all future A.N.A. and C.S.N.S. conventions, but those for the current year have been added. Our own Ill. N. A. convention is usually listed, but was left out in January due to lack of space. It is back now. The date and site were mentioned elsewhere in that issue, so it was felt no harm was done. The 1976 convention cannot be listed yet because the dates have not been fixed — Editor.

Bob—

I receive quite a number of letters from people in Chicago Area wanting information and joining Ill. N. A. as a result of your listing of (bourses). . . .

ODE TO A COLLECTOR

(coins, stamps, guns, dolls, etc.)

Breathes there a collector with soul so dead
Who never to himself has said,
“This is my hobby, a part of my life
It deliveries me from care and strife.
The hurried pace, the same routine,
And inner worries which are not seen.”
There are those who would scoff
At the one who collects
The things that they too soon forget.
Little they know of the piece of mind
That a collection brings; nor can they find
Hours of relaxation when
Their worries seem to come to an end.
So fellow collectors carry on,
Let nothing you dismay.
May you have the good luck and fortune
To add a piece each day.
